

Existing Conditions

Challenges and Opportunities

This map shows important existing features like conservation and agricultural lands, as well as some relevant projects and initiatives in the project area. We are taking these existing conditions and planned initiatives into account in our planning and design process.

