

Project Goals

Helping Eastern Contra Costa County Connect, Move, and Prosper

There are several key goals for this project, all of which align with and support the purpose and need for State Route 239.

IMPROVE access between eastern Contra Costa County and western San Joaquin County

IMPROVE access to Byron airport to support planned development

SUPPORT development and jobs within the area

SUPPORT connections to emergency evacuation routes

SUPPORT local and regional movement of goods

SUPPORT alternative modes of travel, such as biking, walking and transit

REDUCE non-local traffic through the town of Byron

PROTECT natural resources and support habitat conservation planning
