

Project Location

Connecting Three Counties

This new state route will improve mobility between eastern Contra Costa County and the Central Valley by creating a new, four-lane highway. The new north-south roadway will connect State Route 4 at Marsh Creek Road in Contra Costa County to Interstate 580 in Alameda County or Interstate 205 in San Joaquin County. The project area covers an approximately 17-mile stretch between Brentwood and Tracy.

